

Release Notes for Point of View

Point of View v7.1 + Service Pack 3 + Patch 8 (Thursday, January 7, 2016)

Type	Description
Issue	Resolved issue with the Trend Control object drawing additional lines when scrolling from right to left end entering the Daylight Saving period.
Issue	Resolved issue with the SMA's authentication system that was not working properly.
Issue	Resolved issue with Tag Integration where some structure type tags with array members sometimes were not being imported correctly.
Issue	Resolved issue with the Grid Control object, when setting a grid column label to an empty string was no longer hiding that specific column.
Issue	Resolved issue with commands using Shortcut Keys on runtime screens being disabled after one of them used the F10 function key.
Issue	Modified the the SNMPGet() built-in function to better handle memory allocation by creating a new option on the project's .App file called SNMPisolated=1 under the [Options] section.
Issue	Resolved issue with the SetViewerInFocus() built-in function not working properly on the latest versions of the product and OS.
Issue	Resolved issue with the Trend Control showing some gaps in areas where data was actually saved in some specific situations
Issue	Resolved issue with the Event Logger not properly recording the User Name and Station when the values were being changed inside a script with a Loop instruction, such as For...Next in a Remote Thin Client
Issue	Resolved issue with the WinExec() built-in function not working properly with Runtimes on Windows Embedded Standard
Issue	Resolved issue with the FileWriteFields() built-in function not returning the correct value when succesfully writing to a file
Issue	Resolved issue with Tag Integration for RSLogix 5000 not working properly when the tag had certain characters on the Description field
Issue	Resolved issue with Tag Integration for RSLogix 5000 where some tags that were aliases were not being able to be imported.